

gagaku

it's become rather automatic

put on the gagaku
record

write these poems
worry not about
repetition

don't conjure
wait for the demons
to show themselves
to my imagination

don't see them
before they come

don't make them up

the rules of my poetry
are almost as the
rules on the sign
on any public
beach

no alcohol
no this no
dogs no
that

but it is true
often I see the image
in the wrong way and then the writing is
conjury
